

AA GRAPEVINE

Supported Solely By Your Participation

WE'RE SELF-SUPPORTING

The AA Grapevine is entirely self-supporting through the sale of the magazine and related items. It receives none of the group contributions sent to the General Service Office. An important part of self-support at all levels (individual, group, district, area) is to subscribe and purchase other materials to assure the Grapevine and La Viña continue to carry the message of Alcoholics Anonymous.

As stated in the AA Service Manual 2018-2020 Edition, Pg. S79

"AA Grapevine Inc.'s goal is to be supported by revenues from the purchase of subscriptions and other content related items. In contrast to G.S.O., where group contributions are applied to support group services, AA Grapevine, Inc., does not accept contributions from individuals or groups. Nor does it accept revenue from ads or membership fees. AA Grapevine, Inc. relies on A.A. groups, committees, and individual members who value Grapevine and La Viña in their recovery and in their Twelfth Step work to purchase subscriptions. "After all," as Bill W. once wrote, "the Grapevine is to be their Voice — their newspaper. I am quite sure they will support it."

WE'RE CONFERENCE APPROVED

Early AA groups adopted the AA Grapevine as the international journal of Alcoholics Anonymous in 1946. The General Service Conference reaffirmed this designation in 1986.

EACH ISSUE of Grapevine typically offers between 18 and 20 stories written by members of AA and, on occasion, by one of AA's dedicated friends. The stories are direct and personal, and as varied as the fellowship itself. Grapevine writers come from all walks of life and every generation and geographic area. Each month we offer an ongoing picture of our beloved fellowship!
